

MAKING GLOBAL GOALS LOCAL BUSINESS INDIA

Alka Talwar

Connect with Alka at MGGLB—India!

Thursday, 27 April
Transforming the Water
Landscape through Stewardship

Alka Talwar is currently heading the Corporate Social Responsibility Function at Tata Chemicals. She looks after the CSR programs across the enterprise that includes projects on natural resource management, environment conservation, rural energy, sustainable livelihoods, empowerment and improving the quality of life.

She has worked with Tata Chemicals in various functions over the last 27 years, which includes heading the community development functions at Mithapur Gujarat and at Babrala Uttar Pradesh.

She is also Hon. Trustee & Hon. Secretary of Tata Chemicals Society for Rural Development, Okhai – Centre for Empowerment and Uday Foundation (only Hon. Trustee) She has done her bachelors in architecture from CEPT University and has also coauthored two papers on The New Corporate Citizenship & Development and Linking Social enterprise with Social change: the mediating role of Empowerment.