Since 2003, Márcia Balisciano has led corporate responsibility at RELX Group, a provider of information and analytics focused on science and health, risk and business, legal and exhibitions, with more than 30,000 employees and offices in 40 countries. Engaging colleagues throughout the business, she works to ensure RELX Group's non-financial performance is a source of competitive advantage and stakeholder confidence.

She serves on the UN Global Compact UK Advisory Group and the UK National Crime Agency's Child Rescue Alert Board. She is founding director of London museum and educational facility Benjamin Franklin House and previously was special advisor to the American Chamber of Commerce (UK). She is a member of the Conference Board's Sustainability Council and Global Business Women Leaders Council. A Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, she holds an MA in International Relations from the University of Chicago, and a PHD in Economic History from the London School of Economics. She was named Member of the British Empire (MBE) in the Queen's 2007 Birthday Honours List and lives in London with her husband and two boys.
