Stuart Templar

Stuart Templar is responsible for the co-ordination and communication of Volvo's sustainability programme.

Before joining the company in September last year, he spent 16 years working as a diplomat for the British Ministry of Foreign Affairs both in London, as well as in the British Embassies in Romania, Bosnia and Croatia. Stuart worked across a range of issues during his career, including human rights and anti-corruption. He served as a Policy Advisor to the Minister for Europe during the UK's Presidency of the EU in 2005. Between 2008 and 2016, he focused on strategic communication roles.
